

Raising children in a new country

Are you an Arabic-speaking mother?

Are you interested in learning about raising children in Australia and the support available?

Weekly Women's group sessions in Arabic beginning
May 2021

Building stronger families

SSI
settlementservices international

Raising children in a new country

Why should you attend this session?

- To learn about wellbeing and relationships with your children and family members in a new environment
- To learn more about Australian laws and norms relating to children and family
- To share and discuss your cultural ways of raising children with other women of Arabic background
- To know more about support available for children and families

6 Week program [one night a week – 2 hours]

This is a private, confidential program run by Arabic-speaking facilitators and provides child minding service. Snacks will be provided.

When: Rolling intake. Accepting referrals between April and August 2021
(Please note the group will not run in school holidays)

Where: Fairfield or Liverpool

Cost: FREE

Information and booking:

To make a booking, or for more information please call Jessica Harkins on 0435 920 221